

R/V CONNECTICUT COOK

RV Connecticut is need of a cook for time period of late August through mid-November

The cook is responsible for producing 3 well balanced healthy meals per day as well as in between meal snack food. The vessel carries 12 persons on 24 hr. cruises. The cook maybe asked to cook 3 meals per day for up to 30 persons on day trips. The cook is responsible for maintaining galley in a clean sanitary condition at all times. Cook is responsible for all provisioning of food stores as well ship cleaning supplies. Cook is responsible for managing linen supply and working with linen services. Cook maybe asked to assist crew in vessel cleaning and maintenance. They maybe asked to assist Captain and crew on deck when safety of vessel and crew require it. Crew generally works 12 hrs per day at sea and 8 hrs per day in port. Crew may be asked to work longer days if safety of crew and vessel require it. The vessel may be underway for up to 10 days and away from home port 30 days.

Qualifications:

Cook should have minimum of 3 years commercial cooking exp. At least 1 year of kitchen management exp. They should be trained in safe food handling techniques. Must be exp. In menu planning and food ordering. At sea experience helpful.

Resumes may be faxed to 860-405-9153 or e-mailed to marineoperations@uconn.edu

For more information please call 860-405-9178